

"We desire to be able to welcome Jesus at Christmas-time, not in a cold manger of our heart, but in a heart full of love and humility, a heart so pure, so immaculate, so warm with love for one another.

St. Teresa of Calcutta

SCRIPTURE of the DAY

Isaiah 2: 1-5

Psalms 121: 1-2, 4-9

Romans 13: 11-14

Matthew 24: 37-44

St Paul says, "Wake from sleep; put on the Lord Jesus Christ", a wardrobe change that swaps resentment for gentleness and distraction for attention. Jesus warns that ordinary days can lull us into forgetfulness; Noah's neighbours were busy with meals and plans and missed the hour.

More than often, we are preoccupied with travel, shopping and planning while some who are unfortunate grapple with flood-relief needs and preparations for the New Year's challenges.

Besides reminding us about simplicity and solidarity, Advent watchfulness is also a call to ecological conversion. As in Laudato Si' (217 "The ecological crisis is also a summons to profound interior conversion.") It invites us to cultivate a sense of gratitude, restraint, and joy that honours both creation and the poor. Around the wreath we light one candle at a time, slow enough for children to wonder, brave enough to remember those who wait alone: migrants who cannot go home, elders who seldom receive visitors, families rebuilding after floods.

The month that began with remembrance now becomes readiness: homes that listen, discern, and serve—so that when the Lord comes, He finds us awake, together, and available.

This week: Begin a family Advent rhythm: one short daily prayer and one planned act of kindness each week.✚

TOWARDS BUILDING GOD-CENTERED FAMILIES

Advent A Journey of Faith for God-Centered Families

We end November by facing forward. Advent teaches families how to wait with faith and patience, so that we can walk together into God's future. Isaiah imagines nations streaming to the Lord's Mountain to learn His ways; the synodal household becomes a signpost when it chooses presence over purchases and intercession over endless scrolling.
